June 2008 - Issue 29

Namaste Simonetest,

Remember when I wrote last months column I had a song going through my head:

'all you need is love, da da da da dah'

Well this month, in the month of 'Divine Voice', I am surrounded by another heart felt melody 'The Wave of Love - The Song'

Have a quick read (on your right) about this Song, what our Global Love Project is all about.. and we would love to hear your feedback.

In this month of Divine Voice (and with a great astrological line up for communication) - tells those dear to your heart how much you love them, and the gratitude you have for them being in your life.

Waves of Love to you all for June 2008,

Namaste
Simone

ENERGY UPDATE

June is the 6th month of the year, and we are in a Universal 1 year (2+0+0+8=10 and 1+0=1), thus the energies for June relate to the vibration 7 calculated as follows: (6+1 = 7).

Numbers are the foundation of the infinite intelligence of creation, thus as we come to understand the significance of numerology in our life, we can consciously work with these vibrations to fulfill the highest level of our soul's potential in this lifetime.

So lets take a look at how the 7 vibration combines with our lunar/solar energies this month.

The number 7 ...ooohhh I love this number (my full name - married and maiden, and my birth number are 7)... so lets see what it all means.

The number 7 is the number of the Mystic, that is the Lightworker in modern day terms. The Mystic is the seeker of wisdoms, knowledge and understanding Universal Laws.

Thus as we move into Gemini this New Moon, the number 7 is supportive of our inner mystic bringing forth new ideas into our consciousness and communicating these with others.. being a beacon of light in the lives of many. And if you are feeling a little self-conscious just connect with the Mars/Leo combo to cut through the bull and just do it !!!!

On the full moon, we will work with the 7 vibration to understand / give meaning to life from a deeper, more fulfilling perspective... those real 'Ah-huh' moments. '7's are the truth seekers... thus with Sag/Gemini on the full moon the discussion will be lively but at the same time real inroads made in our growth.. and all this will be accelerated later in the month and we move in deeper into our psyche again as Uranus goes retrograde in Pisces.

The 7 number relates to the visible light spectrum, and the return to truth that all what we see are all variants of white light.

In this months 'The Wave of Love' Tele-Seminar we will be covering the number 7 in detail, and understanding colour and its relationship with all of creation.

New Moon
Wed June 4th
2008 at 5:22am
Moon & Sun in
Gemini

Pluto is still retrograde moving from Cap into Sagittarius
Sun 15th June

For this New Moon, the Moon (Intuition, Unconscious, Emotions) and Sun (our Light, Consciousness, Identity) are present in Gemini (Curious, Restless, Knowledge/Ideas) an Air sign.

The Gemini energy will facilitate new ideas, new visions and amazing insights AND with Mars in Leo (moved from Cancer last month), will be really fired up to think outside of the square and make things happen in our life... so bring on the lightbulb moments now !

Pluto Retro in Sag

Pluto (the planet of transformation) moved from Sag to Cap (an Earth sign) in Jan this year, after spending over 12 years in Sag. Pluto is the sign of transformation and Sag is a fire sign of optimism, expansion and freedom.

Pluto in Sag was about uncovering society's beliefs about laws, ideals, religion, and philosophy's... in order to find the truth. Thus the world experienced a shake up during this period through wars, media, and the internet.

Pluto in Cap (until 2023), is now about transforming the foundations of society (after their shake up in Sag), to build a strong future. A restructure from the ground up of our legal system, governments and all power based and ethical/responsible corporations.

However Pluto retrogrades back into Sag this month, going direct in Sag in Sept, then re-enters Cap in late Nov. During this time Pluto is only moving a few short degrees. So what does this mean? This will be an intense time for many people, as the energy pushes you to take a final look at your beliefs as it relates to religion, philosophy, journalism, optimism and ideologies. It will particularly force a death & rebirth (transformation) for those with planets in the late degrees of the mutable signs (Pisces, Gemini, Virgo & Sag) or planets in the early degrees of the cardinal signs (Cap, Aries, Cancer & Libra).

Full Moon
Thurs 19th
June at 3:30am
Moon in
Sagittarius &
Sun in Gemini

Mercury Direct in Gemini
Fri 20th June

Gathering of One
22nd June
2.22 GMT

Winter Solstice (Southern Hemisphere)
Sat 21st June
9.59 am

Summer Solstice (Northern Hemisphere)
Sat 20th June
11.59pm GMT

Uranus Retrograde in Pisces
Fri 27th June
until 28 Nov
2008

The Full Moon in Sagittarius (Freedom, Optimistic, Enthusiastic) is reflecting the light of the Sun in Gemini (Curious, Restless, Knowledge/Ideas).

After the 'brainwaves' encountered with the New Moon, this Full Moon would be an ideal time of coming together with people of like mind to discuss/communicate spiritual insights, perspectives, beliefs etc.. Sag will ensure a fun loving time of celebration and mystical PI work.. whilst Gemini will keep the ideas flowing !

Communication will definitely be lively this Full Moon, in the month of 'Divine Voice'.

Mercury Retro/Direct

The three mercury retrogrades which occur this year are all in air signs - Aquarius (which took place in Jan/Feb), Gemini (May/June) and will be Libra (Sept/Oct). Thus this all relates to reviewing our mental/thought processes during these times.

With Mercury retrograde in Gemini until the 20th, we have the opportunity of reviewing our ideas, thoughts, perceptions - talking with others and maybe making some adjustments in order to move forward.

Winter Solstice (Southern Hemisphere)

This will mark the shortest day of the year in the Southern Hemisphere (daylight hours) due to the tilt of our Earth. It is a time of inner reflection, turning to the Sun within, our solar selves. It is a time to gain strength from within, and get ready to embark on the new journey as our days of daylight get longer, and we are being energised from within.

Summer Solstice (Northern Hemisphere)

This will mark the longest day of the year in the Northern Hemisphere (daylight hours) due to the tilt of our Earth.

As we commenced our journey from the last Winter Solstice we have been energised from Sun in our Heart through to the Divine Heart of all creation. We now reach the peak of growth - and it is a time of celebration for all. As the days then become shorter, it is a time of inner reflection/review as we move toward the next cycle.

Uranus Retro

The Planet Uranus moves into a new sign every 7 years (moved into Pisces in 2003). Uranus is all about change, freedom, rebellion/equality and independence. When in retrograde in Pisces (until Nov), over the following months expect your dreams and intuition to be heightened.

On an internal (inner reflective level) you will be guided on how to release your own fears, perceptions, paradigms that are old ways of living (inherited from family, society etc..). In other words it is a time to rebel against your old ways of being, in order to create a more authentic you ! This is the time for preparation for all the changes to come.
